Dear Phyl:
I see your last letter was written on Dads Birthday. Thus one is on Glasses

just an appetiser for morning tea, I dont often get up-in the mornings tea at 10 A.M. then I get the end of a Dominion but know I'll be more than when I had it- my sight is failing: Raine said last-time I saw her that Dick a Helen had been up for a day & the baby is a lovlies little creature. Roger & family are back from their holiday. Ben goes for his in two or three weeks. One of our talkers has gone for a week to Napier we are all glad to wish her good bye. All Birthdays are coming around, the one today is 91 or 92 & she is very good on her feet, head also is good I suppose you will be down to the Way Room, I seems a long time since you were down, she will be pleased to see you with your chaffeur It makes a change for us all. No news Hope you are well. Love to all from Mabe Goldsmith
