Dear Phyl. I thought I'd write you a short note this morning & happy I found it was a old time fun destroyed letter. However having got as far as Dear Phyl I thought I'd continue I've got half an hour before lunch time. Anne Vitin was in to see me about ten days ago. She is just the same - you will be more sorry about her going. Last week Lorraine, Mavis Burdan's daughter was in I had not seen her for some years & we had a good old talk. Believe it or otherwise it is cold this morning S.E. wind, not much but it are not raining. The road works ~~are~~ going on in this street when it was fine the wind blew so we got no dust at least a small amount only Sorry for the folk over on the other side, they are there today further down & I've not heard them. Short note, I'm headachy. Not much news Lots of Love from Sister Mabel
