

THE OTTO HEGAR FAMILY

Otto Hegar was born November 6, 1821 in Germany (Darmstadt), the son of August Hegar and Karslire (?) Stutzer Hegar.¹ He sailed on the COLCHIS which left Antwerp September 1, 1846 and landed in Galveston, Texas on October 29, 1846.² On the ship coming over he met Miss Sophia Wilhelmina Hessig,³ born February 8, 1829,¹ and they were married in Harris County, Texas on November 16, 1847.⁴

His profession in Germany is unknown but he was a well educated man. His brothers in Germany were Professors and Physicians. Mr. and Mrs. Hegar settled in a part of Harris County which later became a part of Waller County.⁵ At least 77½ acres of this land is in the Sam'l McCarley Survey⁶ and his grand daughter, Mrs. Emma Lee (Effie) Hegar Tucker now owns it. Mr. Hegar farmed this land until the time of his death.

Mr. Hegar served in Company A, 17th Infantry Brigade of Texas, stationed at Camp San Jacinto near Huntsville. He enlisted August 10, 1863 from Grimes County.⁷

He died on October 9, 1886,¹ and is buried in the Hegar Cemetery in Waller County. Mrs. Hegar died on April 13, 1904, and also is buried in Hegar Cemetery.

They probably would not have met had they stayed in Germany since Mrs. Hegar's Father was of the Clergy and was considered in a lower class than Mr. Hegar's family.³
